DECREE OF DIVORCE
No. 3123

The above cause coming on to be heard before the Honorable Guy Stevens, District Judge, in Open Court at Salmon, County of Lemhi, State of Idaho, on the 17th day of September, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, McCall and Thatcher, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney; and it further appearing that the defendant, H. L. Lenderman, was regularly served with process issued out of this court; and the time for answering or pleading to said complaint having expired and no answer or other pleading having been filed and the default of said defendant H. L. Lenderman, having been entered according to law;

And the plaintiff having testified in support of the allegations of her said complaint and her said testimony as to the residence within the State of Idaho of the plaintiff having been duly corroborated by the testomony of her witness; and the court having found that the plaintiff for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; and having found that the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried on the 6th day of July, 1944, and ever since said date have been husband and wife; that there was born issue of said marriage one child, namely Sherry Ann, age nineteen months, now in the custody of the plaintiff; that the parties have acquired no community property within the State of Idaho; and the court having further found that for many months last past the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and in particular as follows: That ever since said marriage, the defendant has been a poor provider and has failed to provide sufficient food and clothing for the plaintiff and, since her birth, for said minor daughter; that the defendant is an able bodied man fully capable of supporting the plaintiff andsaid minor child and his failure to do so has been result of his indifference and selfishness; that as a result of the defendant's failure to provide the necessities of life, the plaintiff has been compelled to work for wages, both before and after the birth of said minor child; and is now working to support herself and said child;

That the defendant failed to pay the hospital bill and doctor bills incurred by the plaintiff at the birth of said child and plaintiff's father paid the same for plaintiff; that the plaintiff has provided the home for the family and has paid the rent on the house and has purchased all of the clothing for herself, some for said infant, and has paid some of the grocery bills.

That the defendant has been addicted to drinking during such time and has spent considerable money purchasing liquor; that the defendant told plaintiff that his work caused him to be away from homefor two or three weeks at a time, but that said statements were false and that the defendant would go away stating that he was on his job and plaintiff learned that he was not on the job and his whereabouts would be unknown to the plaintiff; that this situation existed during the entire time that plaintiff and defendant were living at Medford, Oregon, and up until the time the plaintiff left the defendant.

That on or about October 22, 1946, the defendant asked the plaintiff to get a divorce and stated to her that he did not love her, and at about the same time became angry at the plaintiff and struck her with his hand; that thereupon the plaintiff left the defendant and filed suit for divorce at Medford, Oregon, and later, because she did not have money sufficient to pay costs of the court and attorney's fees, caused said action to be dismissed.

That plaintiff is capable of supporting herself and said minor child by her own efforts and will be assisted, if necessary, by her parents, who live in Lemhi County, Idaho.

And an affidavit of the plaintiff to the effect that the defendant is not now in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act having been filed, and the court having found to that effect; and the court having concluded that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of this court dissolving the contract of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant; and having directed that judgment be entered in accordance therewith, now therefore, by reason of the law and findings aforesaid and upon motion of Preston Thatcher of counsel for plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. That the contract of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, GEORGIA ANN LENDERMAN, and the defendant, H. L. LENDERMAN, be dissolved, and each of the parties be restored to the status of single person.

2. That the plaintiff be awarded the custody of said minor child, Sherry Ann.

JUNE MILLER,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LEON MILLER,

Defendant.

No. 3146

The above cause coming on to be heard before the Honorable Guy Stevens, District Judge, in open court at Salmon, County of Lemhi, State of Idaho, on the 18th day of September, 1947, upon the issues drawn by the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant; and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, McCall & Thatcher, and the defendant appearing in person and by his attorney, Fred H. Smoak, and both parties in open court stipulated that said case may be tried at said time;

And the plaintiff having testified upon her own behalf and said testimony as to the residence of the plaintiff having been duly corroborated by the testimony of her witness; and the defendant having failed to testify or introduce any evidence upon his own behalf.

And the cause having been submitted to the court for its decision and written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived in open court by the respective parties; and the court having considered said cause and having found that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried on the 5th day of August, 1943 at Great Falls, Montana, and ever since said date have been and now are wife and husband; and that for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action the plaintiff has been and now is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; and that one child, namely, Carl Leon, age two and one-half years, has been born issue of said marriage and that said child is now in the custody of the plaintiff;

And the court having further found that at the time of said marriage the defendant was the owner of a one-half interest in all the properties belonging to the Miller Brothers Truck Lines, and that the defendant, since said marriage, has purchased the remaining one-half interest of said property and that said purchase was made partly with separate funds and partly with community funds; and having found that the plaintiff has conveyed all of her right, title and interest in and to said property to the defendant by Bill of Sale and Quit Claim Deed and has thereby surrendered and renounced any and all claim to such property; and having further found that the plaintiff is entitled to have awarded to her certain household furnishings and effects and her own personal effects and that all other property should be awarded to the defendant;

And the court having further found that for two years last past the defendant has become addicted to the excessive drinking of intoxicating liquors, particularly beer, and has, while so intoxicated and at other times, treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner, inflicting upon her grievous mental and physical pain and suffering; that said acts of cruelty have seriously affected plaintiff's health and have caused her to become nervous and ill; that during the summer of 1946 the defendant struck the plaintiff; that in the month of January, 1947, he again struck her; that when under the influence of intoxicating liquors the defendant is quarrelsome and neglects the plaintiff and said minor child and totally disregards the rights of the plaintiff as his wife; the court further finds that the defendant, on numerous occasions during the past two years, has accused the plaintiff of being unfaithful to him and her marriage vows and that all of such accusations were false; that because of such acts of cruelty the plaintiff has left the defendant and is living separate and apart from him.

The court having further found that the plaintiff is a suitable person to have the care and custody of said minor child and that she is unable to support said child by her efforts, and that the defendant is able to provide adequate support and maintenance of said child, and that the plaintiff is without means for the prosecution of this action and for payment of attorney's fees.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to law, the stipulation of the parties, and such findings, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED:

1. That the contract of matrimony existing between the plaintiff,

JUNE MILLER, and the defendant, LYLE MILLER, be dissolved and each of the parties be restored to the status of single person.

2. That the real and personal property owned by the defendant and used by him in connection with the Miller Brothers Truck Lines, particularly described as follows, be and the same hereby is awarded to the defendant as his separate property and estate, to-wit:

Real Property

That portion of Lot 20 of Block 12 of the Salmon City Townsite, described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the NW corner of said Lot 20 and running thence Southerly on the Easterly line of Center Street 274.16 feet, more or less, to the NW corner of the lot heretofore conveyed to Ed Johnson; thence Easterly along the Northerly boundary of said Johnson lot 130.54 feet, more or less, to the land heretofore conveyed to Jessie Matlock; thence in a Northerly direction to the Northerly line of Lot 20; thence Westerly on the Northerly line of said lot 20 to the place of beginning.

ALSO, all that portion of Lot 11 of Block 12 of Salmon City Townsite, described as follows:

Commencing at the NW corner of Lot 11 of Block 12, running, thence South 61° 14' 40" East 56.22 feet; thence South 28° 45' 20" West 236 feet to the place of beginning; thence South 28° 45' 20" West 57 feet; thence South 61° 14' 40" East 120 feet; thence North 28° 45' 20" East 50 feet; thence North 61° 14' 40" West 120 feet to the place of beginning, being a part of tax No. 319.

Personal Property

All trucks, trailers, machinery, parts, equipment and all other personal property of whatsoever kind or nature, wherever situate, belonging to and used in connection with the trucking business of Miller Brothers Truck Lines.

3. That the personal effects and other small household furnishings and articles be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff.

4. That the custody of said minor child, namely, Carl Leon Miller, be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff, with the right to the defendant to see and visit said child at all reasonable times.

5. That the defendant be required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $60.00 per month for the support, maintenance, and education of said minor child, and that such payments shall be made ~~to the clerk of this court~~ each month on or before the 10th day of each month, commencing with the month of October, 1947, and continuing until further order of this court.

6. That the plaintiff be given judgment against the defendant for the sum of $75.00 attorney's fees and $16.40 costs of suit incurred herein.

The above cause coming on to be heard before the Honorable Guy Stevens, District Judge, in open court at Salmon, County of Lemhi, State of Idaho, on the 18th day of September, 1947, upon the issues drawn by the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant; and the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, McCall & Thatcher, and the defendant appearing by her attorney, Charles Herndon; and the parties having in open court, through their respective attorneys, stipulated that said cause may be tried at said time.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in Chambers, in Boise, Ada County, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the Court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of desertion and non-support; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is ing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; and it is further

This matter came on for hearing before the court on this 2nd day of September, 1947, at Weiser, Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney C. H. DOROTHY HUBBS,

Plaintiff,

vs.

GEORGE HUBBS,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court sitting without a jury on the 20th day of September, 1947, on the complaint of plaintiff and the records and files in said action, Ralph R. Breshears, attorney at law, of Boise, Idaho, appearing as attorney for said plaintiff, and the said defendant not appearing in person or by attorney or at all.

It appeared to the Court from the records and files in said action that the said defendant, George Hubbs, had been duly and regularly served with summons in said action, and that said defendant had not appeared in person or by attorney or at all in said action, nor answered or pleaded to the complaint on file therein within the time specified in said summons, or within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that such time has expired and default of the said defendant was thereupon duly entered by order of the Court for failure to so appear or plead.

Evidence was thereupon introduced in behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in said complaint, the testimony of said plaintiff being corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses, and the Court having heard the evidence and the proofs and duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that each and all the allegations contained in said complaint are true. Whereupon it was ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant as prayed in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Ralph R. Breshears, attorney for said plaintiff, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said plaintiff and defendant be and they are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that the plaintiff and the said defendant shall be and they are hereby absolutely and finally divorced and freed of all obligations of their said marriage.

II

That the maiden name of the plaintiff, Dorothy Floyd, is hereby restored to her.

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 27th day of September, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons outside the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to, the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and has not been since the commencement of this action, nor for more than one year prior thereto, in military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence in the State of Idaho, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and wilful neglect as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and that this plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court sitting without a jury on the 2nd day of October, 1947, on the complaint of plaintiff and the records and files in said action, Ralph R. Breshears, attorney at law, of Boise, Idaho, appearing as attorney for said plaintiff, and the said defendant not appearing in person or by attorney or at all.

It appeared to the Court from the records and files in said action that the said defendant, Thomas Judson Goodman, had been duly and regularly served with summons in said action, and that said defendant had not appeared in person or by attorney or at all in said action, nor answered or pleaded to the complaint on file therein within the time specified in said summons, or within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that such time has expired and default of the said defendant was thereupon duly entered by order of the Court for failure to so appear or plead.

Evidence was thereupon introduced in behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in said complaint, the testimony of said plaintiff being corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses, and the Court having heard the evidence and the proofs and duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that each and all the allegations contained in said complaint are true. Whereupon it was ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant as prayed in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Ralph R. Breshears, attorney for said plaintiff, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said plaintiff and defendant be and they are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that the plaintiff and the said defendant shall be and they are hereby absolutely and finally divorced and freed of all obligations of their said marriage.

Done in open court this 2nd day of October, 1947.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Filed OCT 11 1947 at 10 o'clock A.M.
OTTO K. PETERSON, Clerk
By A. CLYDE JACKSON Deputy

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the IIth day of October, I947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and the complaint on file herein as required by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear, answer, or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and has not been for more than one year, in military service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of desertion and wilful neglect of the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the defendant be, and he hereby is, required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of one hundred fifty ($150.00) dollars as attorney fees and to defray the expense of this cause.

JUDGMENT OCT 29 1947

OTTO F. PETERSON, Clerk
BY IRMA HILL DEPUTY

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court sitting without a jury on the 29th day of October, 1947, on the complaint of plaintiff and the records and files in said action, Ralph R. Breshears, attorney at law, of Boise, Idaho, appearing as attorney for said plaintiff, and the said defendant not appearing in person or by attorney or at all.

It appeared to the Court from the records and files in said action that the said defendant, Rex W. Williams, had been duly and regularly served with summons in said action, and that said defendant had not appeared in person or by attorney or at all in said action, nor answered or pleaded to the complaint on file therein within the time specified in said summons, or within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that such time has expired and default of the said defendant was thereupon duly entered by order of the Court for failure to so appear or plead.

Evidence was thereupon introduced in behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in said complaint, the testimony of said plaintiff being corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses, and the Court having heard the evidence and the proofs and duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that each and all the allegations contained in said complaint are true, and that certain written agreement dated February 25, 1947, executed by the plaintiff as party of the first part, and by the defendant as party of the second part, wherein and whereby the then existing and all future property rights of plaintiff and defendant were mutually settled, and the custody of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant agreed upon, is just, reasonable, and a fair and equitable settlement of the property rights of plaintiff and defendant and to the best interest of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant. Whereupon it was ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant as prayed in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Ralph R. Breshears, attorney for said plaintiff, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said plaintiff and defendant be and they are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that the plaintiff and the said defendant shall be and they are hereby absolutely and finally divorced and freed of all obligations of their said marriage.

II

That that certain written agreement dated February 25, 1947, and executed by the plaintiff as party of the first part, and by the defendant as party of the second part, wherein and whereby the then existing and all future property rights of plaintiff and defendant were mutually settled, and the custody of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant agreed upon, a copy of which said agreement is attached hereto and hereby made a part of this decree by reference thereto, be and the same is hereby confirmed and approved.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, at Pocatello, Idaho, on this 1st day of October, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk. Evidence, both oral and documentary, was thereupon introduced by plaintiff and her witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from the evidence, the Court finds that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that plaintiff is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant and to the custody of the minor children.

IT FURTHER APPEARED, That, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Agreement, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody, support and maintenance of the minor children, alimony, attorney fees and costs of this action, which Agreement has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Agreement is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree.

The making and entering of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor children, namely, Maynard Williams now aged 9 years, Boyce Williams, now aged 8 years, Eileen Williams now aged 4 years and John Williams now aged 9 months, is hereby awarded to plaintiff with the right on the part of the defendant to visit said children at reasonable times.

3. That in accordance with the terms of said Agreement, defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff for the support, maintenance and education of said children the sum of $100.00 per month, beginning on the 1st day of September, 1947, and payable monthly in advance on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter until said children arrive at the age of 18 years or until further order of the Court.

4. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That defendant shall pay to plaintiff one-half of defendant's one-third pay or interest for all crops, growing or grown or to be harvested in the year 1947, consisting of hay, wheat, barley and other crops in which defendant has said one-third interest; also, one-half of defendant's one-third pay or interest in approximately 56 head of range cattle or such number of range cattle as defendant owns an interest in; that as each item is sold, defendant shall pay to plaintiff one-half of his one-third share, and plaintiff shall give defendant receipts therefor as she receives said payments.

This case came regularly on for trial before the court this 3 October 1947 upon the complaint of plaintiff and the default of defendant previously entered against him. The case records show that defendant was regularly and personally served with the summons and complaint in this case 6 September 1947 in Clearwater county, Idaho, in the manner provided by law, and that the defendant has failed to appear in the case in any manner to date.

Accordingly, plaintiff Doris Jean Huark is now absolutely and immediately divorced from defendant Keith Arden Ruark, and both parties are hence now restored to the status of single, unmarried persons. Plaintiff's former name of "Doris Jean Delaney" is also now restored to her.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in open court at Caldwell, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him; and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of extreme mental and physical cruelty, and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the plaintiff shall have the care, custody and control of the said minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Charles Larry Shrader, until further order of the court.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Love, one of his attorneys. The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by counsel. Thereupon it appeared to the court that the summons herein had been personally served upon the defendant within the State of Idaho and that the defendant had appeared herein by Arthur E. DECREE

FILED

Lillian M. Campbell, Clerk

THIS matter came on to be heard before the Court upon the amended complaint of the plaintiff on file herein. The defendant, after acknowledgement of service of a copy of the amended complaint, withdrew from said action, and refused to plead further. Thereupon, the court received the sworn testimony of the plaintiff and his corroborating witness, and from the evidence, the court finds in general that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint were true, and that the defendant has inflicted extreme cruelty upon the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint.

Since the minor children of plaintiff and defendant have been voluntarily taken outside the jurisdiction of this court by the plaintiff herein, the court refuses to make any award with regards to the custody of said children, but that the court does find that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge, and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and that the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced from one another.

DECREE

OCT 13 1947

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by publication of the summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. DECREE OF DIVORCE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appeared with her attorneys, Whitla and Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented, although the Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons and Complaint was duly and regularly made upon the defendant in the State of Idaho, and that after the time allowed by Law for the defendant to appear, and he having failed so to do, the plaintiff duly filed an affidavit showing that the defendant was not in the Federal service as a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or military service whatever of the United States, as designated by the act of Congress, and thereafter the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered entered by the Clerk of this Court.

After hearing the evidence introduced, and Findings of Fact having been waived, the Court finds and decrees:

That the plaintiff and defendant were married at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, April 11, 1924, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife, and that the plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action, and for more than 20 years.

That the defendant has been guilty of desertion, and that he willfully, intentionally, and without cause deserted the plaintiff, July 4, 1929, and since said time has lived separately and apart from her, and although an able bodied man capable of earning large sums has failed to furnish or provide for the plaintiff and the children the common necessities of life, he having the ability to do so, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce on the ground of desertion and willful neglect. DECREE OF DIVORCE

By Sue Langford

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appeared with her attorneys, Whitla and Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal personal service of the Summons and Complaint was duly and regularly made upon the defendant outside of the state of Idaho, as provided by law, and the orders of this Court and due proof thereof made and filed herein.

That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the defendant to appear, and the defendant having failed to appear or filed any answer, the plaintiff duly filed an affidavit showing that the defendant was not in the Federal Service as a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard or any military service whatever of the United States, as designated by the act of Congress, and thereafter the default of said defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

After hearing the evidence introduced, and Findings of Fact having been waived, the Court finds and decrees:

That the plaintiff and defendant were married at Rochester, New York, July 29, 1933, and ever since have been husband and wife, and that plaintiff has been a bona-fide resident of the state of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action.

That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the defendant, and would become intoxicated, mistreat and abuse her, call her all manner of names, and accuse her of all manner of improper conduct, which actions became an habitual course of conduct by the defendant, and became known to the plaintiff's friends and acquaintances, and continued to such an extent that it caused the plaintiff great and grievous physical and mental pain and suffering, undermined the health of the plaintiff and made it impossible for the plaintiff and defendant to live together as husband and wife, and that by reason thereof defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existed between the plaintiff, Myrtle M. Smith, and the defendant, H. Michael Smith, be and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved, and set aside, and the plaintiff is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

BESSIE V. McDEARMON,

This matter came on for hearing in open court at Shoshone, Idaho, this 10th day of October, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Ross B. Haddock, his attorney, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor any one for her.

The court thereupon inspected the sworn acceptance of service executed by the defendant, and found that the defendant stated therein that she was not in the military service of the United States of America; thereupon, the court made and entered an order permitting the default of the defendant in this matter to be entered in case of proper service of summons upon her.

The court thereupon inspected the summons heretofore issued in this matter, and finds that the defendant accepted service of summons in Los Angeles, California, on the 18th day of September, 1947, said acceptance of service being sworn to by the defendant before a Notary Public on the 19th day of September, 1947. The court finds that the statutory time allowed the defendant for making an appearance and pleading to said complaint has expired, and that the defendant is in default for want of an appearance and for failure to plead to the complaint on file herein, and the court ordered that the default of the defendant be entered; thereupon, a clerk's default was entered declaring the defendant in default for want of an appearance and for failure to plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein; thereupon, Leonard E. McDearmon, the plaintiff herein, and Myrtle Daisy were sworn and testified in behalf of the plaintiff; whereupon, the plaintiff rested.

And the court, having seen and heard the testimony in behalf of the plaintiff, and having seen and inspected the files and records in this matter, and being fully advised in the matter, finds that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed in his complaint. The court finds that the defendant, shortly prior to September 1, 1946, wilfully deserted defendant in Los Angeles, California, as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and has ever since said date refused to live with the plaintiff, and that said desertion has been continuous for more than one year. The court further finds that the plaintiff's allegations of cruel and inhuman treatment by the defendant, as set forth in plaintiff's complaint, are true.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, Leonard E. McDearmon, and the defendant, Bessie V. McDearmon, be and the same is hereby dissolved, and the said parties, and each of them, are freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

2. That the custody of Kenneth Ostendorf, the minor son of the defendant, be awarded to the defendant.

3. That the costs of this action be taxed to the plaintiff.

Done in open court this 10th day of October, 1947.

ORDER MODIFYING DECREE

Now on this 29th day of August, 1947, this matter came on for hearing to the Court at Chambers, upon the Order to Show Cause heretofore made and entered herein on the 25th day of July, 1947, which said Order was directed to the defendant and Ordered him to show cause, if any he may have had, why he should not, on the 22nd day of August, 1947, show cause why the decree herein should not be modified to give the plaintiff full custody of Ronald Smithson, the minor child of the parties hereto and why the Court should not make a calculation of the amount due the plaintiff from the defendant, under said decree, for the support of the said minor child of the parties hereto.

Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., her attorney. The defendant did not appear. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of Plaintiff's motion. The matter was then submitted to the Court for its decision.

Upon consideration of the files and of the evidence, the Court finds that the said defendant had good and sufficient notice of these proceedings; that he has wholly failed to appear herein in response to said Order although the time for so doing has wholly expired and that the defendant is in default and that the said defendant's default has been duly entered against him by the Clerk of this Court. That, from the evidence, it appears to be for the best interests of the minor child of the parties hereto, Ronald Smithson, for the plaintiff to have full custody of said minor child with the right of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times. It further appears to the Court and the Court so finds that, as of the said 29th day of August, 1947, the defendant was in arrears in payments for support money to the plaintiff for the support of the said minor child of the parties hereto, in the sum of $175.00 and that the plaintiff should have execution therefor.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND DECREED AND ADJUDGED, that the plaintiff, Latha Smithson, have the custody of Ronald Smithson, the minor child of the parties hereto; that the defendant, John L. Smithson have the right to visit said child at reasonable times; that the defendant has paid no support money to the plaintiff for the support of said minor child, as provided for in the decree herein and now owes the plaintiff the sum of $175.00, and that the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant for the sum of $175.00 and that, upon application to the Clerk of this Court, the plaintiff may have execition issued against the defendant for said judgment.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 19th day of September, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, and it being shown to the Court that on the 19th day of September, 1947, there was filed herein defendant's affidavit admitting the receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint in this action; his refusal to appear for the purpose of pleading to the complaint herein; and subjecting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court for all purposes connected with this action; it appearing further that on the 19th day of September, 1947, the default of the defendant for failure to plead was entered by the Clerk of this Court; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ORDERED that the entry of default as aforesaid be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to her residence. From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between the said plaintiff, ADA ROBERTS, and the said defendant, CLAY ROBERTS, be dissolved, and the same hereby is dissolved; that said parties be, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; and that the plaintiff be and she hereby is restored to her former name of ADA BRAWLEY.

This cause having come on regularly to be heard before the court at the court room of said court, the Honorable James W. Porter, presiding at the regular September 1947 term of said court, on the 10th day of October, 1947, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel W.L.Dunn,Esq.,and the defendant neither appearing in person or by counsel, but having theretofore caused his voluntary appearance and waiver of service summons and statutory time within which to plead to plaintiff's complaint and consent to default to be filed herein and the Clerk's default having been duly entered and approved by the court, whereupon the court proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises and the matter being finally submitted, the court finds that the said defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty to the extent of causing plaintiff great and grievous mental and physical suffering and distress, and that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained, wherefore, Now, Therefore, upon motion of W.L.Dunn, counsel for the plaintiff, It is Hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREES: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony, and plaintiff restored to her former name of Mary Elizabeth Mellen.

VIRGINIA M. DECKER, Plaintiff,

GEORGE A. DECKER, Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER CAME ON TO BE HEARD BEFORE THE ABOVE ENTITLED COURT on the 10th day of October, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, and it being shown to the Court that on the 8th day of October, 1947, there was filed herein defendant's affidavit admitting the service upon him of a copy of the summons and complaint in this action; his refusal to appear for the purpose of pleading to the complaint herein; and subjecting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court for all purposes connected with this action; it appearing further that on the 9th day of October, 1947, the default of the defendant for failure to plead was entered by the Clerk of this Court; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that the entry of default as aforesaid be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to her residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties, that there are no minor children living with either of the parties, that they accumulated certain community property during their marriage, and that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty by the infliction of grevious mental suffering upon her, are all true.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

The Court further finds from the evidence that on the 8th day of October, 1947, the parties hereto entered into a property settlement agreement, duly executed and acknowledged, making full and complete division and disposition of their community property. The Court has examined said agreement and is satisfied that it is a fair and equitable adjustment of the property rights of the parties to this action, and that said agreement ought to be incorporated in and made a part of this decree.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED , and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between said plaintiff, Virginia M. Decker, and said defendant, George A. Decker, be dissolved, and the same hereby is dissolved; that said parties be, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; that the community property of plaintiff and defendant be, and it hereby is, awarded to each of said parties in accordance with the property settlement agrement made and entered into by them on the 8th day of October, 1947, and attached to this decree as Exhibit A, and hereby made a part hereof.

Done in open court this 10th day of October, 1947.

#21028

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 8th day of November, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant appeared only by waiving service of summons, time to plead, refusing to plead further, and waiving findings of fact and conclusions of law and any further notice of trial required by law.

It appearing to the Court that more than twenty days had elapsed since the defendant's acknowledgment of receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint had been executed, that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear, answer or otherwise plead to the complaint on file herein, and it further appearing from plaintiff's testimony, and defendant's affidavit, that defendant is not now, and for more than one year has not been, in military service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved; the Court further finds that the parties hereto have heretofore entered into a stipulation or agreement adjusting and settling their community property rights and interests to the satisfaction of the plaintiff, and which agreement or stipulation is as follows:

"Stipulation

The plaintiff above named being desirous of seeking a divorce from the defendant above named, and the defendant above named, although opposing such action and being willing to continue living with and supporting the plaintiff as man and wife, appearing personally and by their respective attorneys, John D. Kehoe for the plaintiff, Mary Jane Speerschneider, and Arthur Kaftan for the defendant, Kenneth W. Speerschneider, hereby stipulate and agree that in the event that a divorce be granted to the plaintiff above named, in any court of lawful jurisdiction, the following division of property and payments of alimony shall be made as between the parties, subject to the approval of the Court, to-wit:

I. The cash on hand representing War Bonds and totalling the sum of $756.II shall be turned over to the plaintiff, Mary Jane Speerschneider.

2. The household furniture and furnishings used by the parties above named shall be turned over to the plaintiff and retained by her.

3. The automobile, a Nash I946 four-door Sedan shall be retained by and belong to the defendant, Kenneth W. Speerschneider.

4. All life insurance policies on the life of the defendant, Kenneth W. Speerschneider, and in which the plaintiff is named as beneficiary, shall be changed so that the plaintiff is no longer named as such beneficiary, and shall have no further interest or right in and to the proceeds of said life insurance policies.

5. In lieu of any and all further property division and in lieu of any and all alimony payments, the plaintiff will accept and the defendant will pay to the plaintiff the sum of Ten ($I0.00) dollars per week, beginning August 29, I947, and continuing through November 28, I947, and that no other or further payments will thereafter be made of any nature or description.

Dated this 22 day of August, I947.

Plaintiff

(Sgd) John D. Kehoe
Plaintiff's Attorney

(Sgd) Kenneth W. Speerschneider
Defendant

(Sgd) Arthur Kaftan
Defendant's Attorney".

It further appearing to the Court that it is the desire of the plaintiff that her maiden name be restored, that she has no minor children, and no other objections appearing;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the foregoing property settlement agreement, or stipulation, be, and the same is hereby, approved and confirmed,

(3rd) That the maiden name of the plaintiff herein, Mary Jane Speerschneider, be, and the same is hereby, restored to Mary Jane Haefs.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

This cause came on for hearing before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, in the Chambers of this Court in the Bannock County Court House, in Pocatello, Idaho, this 8th day of November, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and also by her attorney, H. J. Swanson, of Pocatello, Idaho. The defendant appeared not either in person or by attorney, and thereupon the Court proceeded to examine the files, records and proceedings had in this case, and finds that the Summons has been personally served under Order of this Court as provided for by the laws of the State of Idaho; that at the time of such service the defendant was in the military service, but that he, in writing, accepted service and waived all of his rights under the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, and the amendments thereto, which acceptance of service and waiver the Court has examined and does hereby approve. That a Clerk's Default has been entered as provided for by law, which Clerk's Default is hereby approved and confirmed. The Court further finds that the defendant is not now in the military service, but is residing and working in Pocatello, Idaho. That the Court has jurisdiction over the parties to this action, and over the subject matter thereof.

That thereupon the plaintiff presented her evidence and the Court, having heard the evidence of the plaintiff and of her corroborating witness, and having considered the same finds that all of the allegations of the complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in the complaint; and the Court further finds that the permanent custody of the minor children named in the complaint ishereby awarded to the plaintiff, subject to the right of the defendant to visit such children at reasonable times, and subject to his further right to have the custody of said minor children in vacation times when such custody will not in any way interfere with their attendance at school, and that the said defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of ONE Dollars a month as alimony for her support and the further sum of Thirty Dollars a month for the support of the minor children, until the further order of the Court in the premises herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court having heard the evidence and having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED AND ORDERED That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $1 00/100 a month as alimony for her support, and that the said defendant further pay to the plaintiff the sum of $30 00/100 a month for the support of the minor children hereinabove named, commencing with the 15th day of November, 1947, and that such monthly payments continue until the further order of the Court.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on for trial before the Honorable L. E. Glenn, District Judge, on the 10th day of November, 1947, in the courtroom of the above entitled court in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho. Merrill & Merrill, Attorneys at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff. The defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the court that the defendant had been duly and personally served with summons within the County of Bannock, State of Idaho, but failed within the time allowed by law or at all to demur to, answer, or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint, and that he is not a member of the Army, naval, air or marine services of the United States, but is engaged in civilian life, and that his default for failing to plead to said complaint within the time prescribed by law has been duly and regularly entered. Evidence was introduced for and on behalf of the plaintiff, free from all exceptions as to its competency, relevancy and admissibility, from which evidence it appears that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that she is entitled to the relief sought as hereinafter recited. It further appeared from the evidence adduced that an agreement had been entered into between said parties, by the terms of which the community property of the parties was divided, which said agreement the court finds to be fair and equitable.

The Court being fully advised in the law and the premises:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage contracted between the plaintiff, Geneese Cahoon Johnson, and the defendant, Richard Kerrwood Johnson, on or about the 10th day of May, 1944, be and the same is hereby dissolved and held for naught and that said parties are and each of them is restored to the status of a single person.

THIS CAUSE Came on for trial this 19th day of November, 1947, at 2 o'clock P.M., in the above entitled Court pursuant to the setting of said cause for trial heretofore made before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, Judge of said Court. A Stipulation was filed duly signed by all the parties and their counsel relating to the settlement of the community property rights of the parties and to the custody and support of the minor children of the parties, and the Court examined said Stipulation and finds the same to be just and equitable, and the Court hereby adopts said Stipulation as being fair and equitable and as being a proper settlement of the community property rights of the parties and approves said Stipulation insofar as the same relates to the maintenance, custody and support of the minor children of the parties.

Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law were waived by the parties in their Stipulation referred to above and the Court now being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, MISAO OKAMURA and the defendant, PAUL OKAMURA, be and the same hereby are dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties hereto be and hereby are divorced and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED And the Court finds, that the plaintiff, MISAO OKAMURA is not so situated that she will be able to have the custody of the minor children of the parties at this time, and that the defendant, PAUL OKAMURA is so situated that he has a proper place to take care of said minor children and persons to care for them, and that both of the parties to this action are fit and proper persons to whom the custody of the minor children of the parties might have been awarded but that at the present time and pursuant to the Stipulation referred to above and entered into by the parties, IT IS ORDERED that the custody, care and control of the three minor children of the parties, namely: Edith Okamura, Judith Okamura and Diane Okamura be and hereby is given to the defendant, PAUL OKAMURA, and that he be and hereby is required to support and maintain said children at his own cost and expense and that the plaintiff, MISAO OKAMURA is hereby given the right to petition the Court for the modification of the Decree relating to the custody of said children at any time when the change of circumstances of the parties may occur in the future.

That the plaintiff, MISAO OKAMURA shall have the right to see and visit said children at least once a week or to have them visit with her at least once each week, and that she shall have the right to select the day of each week when she wishes to visit said children or to have said children visit with her; that for the time being, the plaintiff wishes to have said children visit her or visit with them on the Sunday of each week; provided further, that if plaintiff desires to have said children or any of them with her or desires to visit them on such Sunday or on such other day that may be agreed on or determined, she shall notify defendant the preceding day of such intentions or desires. If she desires to change to any other specific day of the week, she shall consult the defendant, PAUL OKAMURA and agree with him as to such other day of the week and if agreement cannot be reached she shall apply to the Judge and ask the Judge to make such change. That the right of the plaintiff to visit with said children or have them visit her shall not be exercised on Saturdays.

That neither the plaintiff, MISAO OKAMURA, nor the defendant, PAUL OKAMURA, shall in any way influence the children against the other party, and each party shall endeavor to carry out the provisions of this Decree so as to afford the other party full opportunity to associate with said children within the limitations of the provisions herein provided.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, PAUL OKAMURA shall pay to the plaintiff, MISAO OKAMURA the sum of $2000.00 cash, lawful money of the United States of America, and that said sum shall be accepted by and hereby is decreed to be in full settlement of any and all community property rights of the plaintiff, MISAO OKAMURA in the community property of the parties, and that said sum of $2000.00 shall be paid as follows: The sum of $1000.00 forthwith and the Court finds that the sum of $1000.00 has now, at the time of the signing of this Decree, been paid by the defendant to the plaintiff. The balance in the sum of $1000.00 shall be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff in monthly installments of at least $50.00 per month; that the first installment shall be paid on or before the 15th day of December, 1947, and a like payment of $50.00 shall be made and paid to the plaintiff by the defendant on or before the 15th day of each succeeding calendar month until the whole sum of $1000.00 shall have been paid; that said payments shall be made to Carl C. Christensen, Attorney at Law, at his office in Pocatello, Idaho, for the benefit of the plaintiff, and that payments so made to said Attorney shall constitute payment to the plaintiff.

Findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by the parties hereto, and after duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 18th day of October, 1947, by and between Betty Lou Hoopes, the plaintiff named in the above entitled action, hereinafter designated as the first party, and Jesse B. Hoopes, the above named defendant, hereinafter designated as the second party, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are wife and husband, and because of certain differences and disagreements which have arisen between them they are now and ever since the first day of December, 1946, have been living separate and apart from each other, and the said first party has filed suit against the second party for divorce, AND,

WHEREAS, The said parties desire to settle and adjust certain of the differences arising between them with reference to the custody of their minor children and the disposition of their community property, NOW, THEREFORE;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED by and between the parties hereto as follows:

1. Community property consists only of miscellaneous household furniture, fixtures and equipment, and the second party hereby sells, assigns, transfers and conveys to the first party, so that the same shall hereafter be held by the first party as her sole and separate property, all of his right, title, claim and interest in and to the said furniture, fixtures and equipment.

2. That the care, custody and control of Marilyn Ruth Hoopes and Garnet Kay Hoopes, minor children of the plaintiff and the defendant, is hereby awarded to the first party but the second party shall have the right to visit said children at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time and to have said children and each of them visit him at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time, and especially during the three summer months when such visits will not interfere with the children's attendance at school.

3. Commencing upon the 1st day of November, 1947, the second party shall pay to the first party, towards the support, and maintenance, of said minor children the sum of $25.00 for each of said children and that the second party shall pay said sum of $25.00 to the first party on or before the 1st day of each month thereafter for each of said children and shall continue to make such payments until the child for which the payment is made attains the age of majority; provided, however, that in the event said children, or either of them, shall visit the second party for any period of one week or longer, under circumstances where the second party shall maintain and support them during the period of such visit, then and in that event, during the period of such visit, the second party shall be relieved from making the payment hereinbefore provided for support of said children. In addition to the foregoing payments, the second party shall pay to the first party all expenses incurred for medical, dental or hospital services for either or both of said minor children and in the event the first party shall first pay any such expenses for medical, dental or hospital services, then and in that event the second party agrees to pay to and reimburse the first party for such expenses.

4. This agreement is made with the intention of and for the purpose of settling forever all of the property rights existing between the parties hereto and it is agreed that neither of them will ever make any claim upon the other of any kind or nature whatsoever, depending upon or growing out of the marriage relationship which now exists between them, except to enforce the terms of this agreement, and each of the parties hereto hereby releases the other from all claims, debts and demands of every kind, name or nature whatsoever, whether for alimony, support money or otherwise, and this agreement is and shall be construed as a full and complete determination and final settlement of all property rights existing between the parties hereto. All property hereafter acquired by either of the parties hereto, whether by accumulation, investment or in any other way, shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear from any claim, interest or control whatsoever of the other party.

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action in said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilfull desertion of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action of the plaintiff's complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

Said payments shall be made to the first party by depositing the same with the Bank of America, at Ventura, California, to the credit of the first party, or at such other bank as the first party may designate in writing. In addition to making said monthly payments as above mentioned, the second party agrees that he will pay all doctor, dentist and hospital bills incurred for services rendered to either or both of said minor children.

2. It is agreed and understood that this agreement is not entered into in consideration of, and shall not be construed as,

vs.
RAYMOND H. SCHILLING,
Defendant.

DECREE OF ANNULLMENT

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled Court sitting, without a jury, on the 27th day of September, 1947, CALDWELL & ALEXANDERSON, through Hugh N. Caldwell, appearing as counsel for plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and defendant having failed to appear herein in person or by counsel, and said defendant having failed to appear or plead to said complaint within the time required by law, or at all, and his default having been duly entered, witnesses were sworn and testified;

And the Court having heard and considered all the evidence and testimony in said action and it thereby having been made to appear to this Court that the plaintiff and defendant went through the ceremony of a marriage service at Spokane, in State of Washington on or about the 28th day of May, 1947, and thereupon became, as they believed, husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now, and for more than six full weeks, to-wit for more than forty years has been a bona-fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That there are no children the issue of this marriage, and that there are no property interests, community or otherwise to be adjudicated between the said parties.

That plaintiff's name before her marriage was Daisy Yriberry.

That soon after said marriage was celebrated the plaintiff discovered that the defendant, at the time of his marriage with the plaintiff, as aforesaid, was and ever since said marriage has continued to be wholly incapable of consummating said marriage and was physically incapable of entering into the marriage state by reason of incurable personal defects, in that his sexual organs and parts of generation are frigid and impotent, and that such frigidity and impotence of said parts and organs are wholly incurable. That such incapacity was known, or should have been known, to the defendant at the time of contracting said marriage but was wholly unknown to the plaintiff. That said defendant is naturally permanently and incurably impotent. That plaintiff at all times during said marriage has been, and now is, sexually normal and that by reason of defendant's impotence as above set forth said marriage could not and has not been consummated by sexual intercourse of the parties.

That all the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by the evidence and proof submitted upon said hearing and that plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Annullment and to the relief prayed for by her in said complaint, and that said Decree should be entered accordingly;

And it further appearing to the Court that said defendant is not a person in military service of the United States, as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, or as defined in any act of Congress, or the State Legislature;

That all the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by said defendant by his refusal to plead to or to answer plaintiff's complaint in said action, and by said defendant's refusal and failure to appear in said action or at the trial of said action or to offer any evidence at the hearing and trial thereof;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

(1) That said marriage between the plaintiff, Daisy Yriberry Schilling and said defendant, Raymond H. Schilling be and the same is hereby decreed wholly null and void from the beginning thereof, and the said parties are and each of them is hereby freed from the obligations thereof.

(2) That said plaintiff, Daisy Yriberry Schilling be and she hereby is restored to her former name before her marriage, Daisy Yriberry.

ROBERT M. CARICO, Plaintiff, vs. RUBY MAE CARICO, Defendant.	FINDINGS AND ORDER

On this 10th day of October, 1947, this matter came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Doran H. Sutphen, Judge of the above entitled Court, in the Court Room of the Court House at Gooding, Idaho, upon plaintiff's Petition for modification of the decree made and entered in this Court on the 5th day of April, 1946, and upon the plaintiff's Motion and due and legal Notice for the setting of said hearing on the 30th day of September, 1947, at 10:00 o'clock A.M., at which time the defendant did not appear in person or by her attorney and no written appearance or pleading in opposition to said Motion being filed, and the matter being continued to October 10, 1947, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. upon order of the Court, and the matter coming on regularly for hearing on said date, and the defendant not appearing in person or by her attorney and not having filed any written appearance in opposition to said Petition, and the defendant being in default on said Motion, and the plaintiff having submitted evidence in support of his Petition for modification of said decree, and the Court having duly considered the same and the files in said case, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds as follows, to-wit:

I.

That on the 5th day of April, 1946, this Court made a decree in the above entitled cause, by which it was ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

"1. That the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby forever dissolved.

2. That the defendant be and is hereby awarded the custody and control of the minor child, to-wit: Bobbye Jeanne Carico, subject to the right of the plaintiff to visit said child and to have the child visit him at reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant be and she is hereby awarded the sum of $100.00 per month for the support of the minor child, Bobbye Jeanne Carico, during the time that the plaintiff is in military service and the sum of $75.00 per month during the time he is no longer in military service. The first payment shall be made on or before April 10, 1946 and subsequent payments shall be made on or before the 10th day of each month thereafter. Said payments shall be made as long as said minor child is living and until said minor child shall attain the age of 21 years or marries, or is adopted, and as long as the defendant remains single. In event that the defendant re-marries, said payments shall be reduced to the sum of $25.00 per month for the support, education and maintenance of the minor child, unless altered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

4. That the property settlement and agreement entered into and dated the 2nd day of April, 1946, executed by the parties to this action, be and is hereby approved by the Court as settling their property rights and custody and support of the minor child."

That said decree was filed and recorded in the above entitled Court on the 5th day of April, 1946.

That the plaintiff obtained the divorce upon the grounds of cruelty and desertion, and that among the other things alleged as grounds for cruelty, the complaint alleged as follows:

"(e) That the defendant has obtained from the plaintiff $1900.00 on one occasion upon representations which she did not fulfill and prior to their separation withdrew from their joint checking account in the sum of $2892.85, the sum of $2392.00, leaving the plaintiff 85¢."

II.

That the defendant was awarded the care and custody of the minor child, Bobbye Jeanne Carico, and that a Property Settlement and Agreement was entered into, dated April 2, 1946, which said Agreement was confirmed by the said Court. That pursuant to said Agreement the plaintiff paid to the defendant the sum of $300.00 and the sum of $150.00 to her attorney, David R. Solomon, and the sum of $75.00 to her attorney of record, Paul Barnes, and $3.00 court costs, or a total sum of $528.00.

That the plaintiff is now in debt and has remarried and now has a wife and child also to support, and does not have sufficient means with which to pay the sum of $75.00 a month for the support of the minor child during the time he is out of military service or the sum of $100.00 for the support of said minor child during the time he is in military service, and plaintiff does not have funds or earnings sufficient to pay more than $25.00 a month for the support of said minor child.

That the defendant has put the plaintiff to additional expense by reason of an attempted extradition to the State of Alabama as a fugitive from justice and that said application was denied by the Governor of the State of Idaho.

III.

That the plaintiff is entitled to have said decree modified to provide for payment of the sum of $25.00 a month for the support of the minor child, Bobbye Jeanne Carico, until said minor child shall become of legal age, or marries, or is adopted. That the payments shall begin with September 10, 1947, and said payment of $25.00 heretofore paid to the Clerk of the Court by the plaintiff for the September payment shall be paid to the defendant.

From the foregoing Findings, this Court concludes:

I.

That the defendant has been legally and properly served with Notice of the Petition for modification of the decree and that the plaintiff is entitled to an Order modifying the decree so as to provide for the payment of $25.00 a month for the support, education, and maintenance of the minor child.

WHEREFORE, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the Judgment made and entered herein on the 5th day of April, 1946, be, and the same is hereby, modified as follows, to-wit:

That the defendant be and is hereby awarded the sum of $25.00 per month, the first payment to be made as of September 10, 1947, for the support, education and maintenance of the minor child until said child shall attain legal age, or marries, or is adopted; and it is further ORDERED, That the Property Settlement and Agreement dated April 2, 1946, executed by the parties to this action, is approved as settling their property rights and the custody and support of the minor child except as herein modified.

That as to the rest of said decree, the same is not modified and shall remain in full force and effect.

J U D G M E N T

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 29th day of October, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that she had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for her failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of his complaint from which it appears and the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the said Complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho. The Court further finds and adjudges that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or of any nation allied with the United States of America, and has not been in such service since the institution of this suit.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person; and that the 1939 Packard automobile mentioned in the complaint and the plaintiff's personal effects consisting of carved Chinese camphor wood chest, filled with clothing, papers, etc.,, a typewriter desk and chair and contents of said desk, a purox welding unit and vice, and about 200 books, are hereby awarded to the plaintiff.
